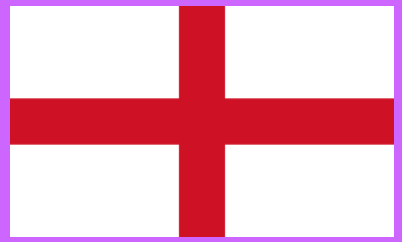
International Schools at St-Johns



We have achieved the Foundation International Schools Award

We aim to get to the Intermediate level by the end of the year.

Foundation level

If you are beginning your international education journey, the Foundation level is best for your school.

Intermediate level

This level is best for schools that have partnered with schools overseas and have begun working with them collaboratively.

Accreditation level

Schools at this level will have established a programme of activities around international education and embedded learning across the school.

Reaccreditation level

Apply if you have successfully completed the Accreditation level and want to reconfirm your school's commitment to international education.

Our aim at St-Johns:

- To provide children with an informed awareness of countries, cultures and languages other than their own;
- To encourage greater involvement in environmental and other ethical issues;
- To develop children's curiosity and understanding of other cultures;
- To enable children, staff and governors to gain an insight into daily life and practice in other countries;
- To promote British Values, equal opportunities and equality;
- To develop a sense of belonging within school and the local community by enhancing children's understanding of the diversity within the community;
- To support children in developing a sense of their own identity.
